SHERIFF HILL VILLAGE SHOW AND VE DAY CELEBRATIONS

*St John's Church,
Church Rd*

Saturday 10th May 10am-2pm

Sheriff Hill 200 years ago

Why are we having a Village Show?

St John's Church, Sheriff Hill is 200 years old this year!

Back in 1825 Sheriff Hill would have been a village with just a few houses, a couple of pubs, chapels and some industry but still surrounded by fields. So we have decided to have a 'village' show to celebrate all the things people do now and have a competition!

And to celebrate 80 years since VE day we are especially celebrating the values of the 1940s with an emphasis on home-made and 'make do and mend'!

So whether you make jam, bake cakes, knit, crochet, arrange flowers, paint or take photographs, there will be a class for you.

What things could I enter?

Some of the classes will be:

- Piece of artwork
- Home made cake
- Jam
- Bread
- An item of knitting or crochet
- A photograph
- A piece of Calligraphy
- 'Make do and mend' upcycled item

Each adult class is 50p to enter
